Ten thousand schoolboys will have an outing on the playing green in Central Park to-morrow afternoon. They will go through a drill in which the whole number will take part, and after that races and games, basketball, baseball and soccer football will be played by teams from the different boroughs of Greater New York, all of which will be represented.

BY JUSTICES COLLINS, MOSS AND FORKER.

The words are by Robert B. Smith.
The music is by Oscar Straus. The song is sung at the New Amsterdam in "My Little Friend." You can get it complete, words and music, by buying next Sunday's World. The song is in the Magazine.

BY JUSTICES COLLINS, MOSS AND FORKER.

The outing was arranged by a committee appointed on behalf of the Public Schools Athletic League, the Park Department and the Board of Education.
The members of the committee are:
Gen. George Wingate, President of the P. S. A. L.; Vincent Aster, Luther H.
Gulick, Edward W. Stitt, S. R. Guggenheim, C. Ward Crampton and Gustavus Z. Kirby, President of the Amateur Athletic Union.

BY JUSTICES COLLINS, MOSS AND FORKER.

The purpose of the outing is to teach boys the value of outdoor sports and the facilities for such sports afforded by Central Park. The committee desires also, according to a circular it has issued, to impress the same facts upon parents.
